

AMBASSADOR HERRICK AT PRESIDENTIAL SHOOT IN FRANCE. The American, British and Italian Ambassadors, with other diplomats in Paris, took part in the Presidential shoot in the famous forest of Rambouillet. The large picture shows the spoils of the day. The small picture shows Ambassador Herrick shooting.

International

WHEN A QUEEN GOES FLYFISHING. An extremely informal picture of Queen Marie of Yugoslavia, fishing in a lake in the palace gardens, while King Alexander looks on at her side.

Wide World

SPANISH ROYALTY TAKES AN AIRING. King Alfonso and the Queen in Seville as they traveled to a feast, following the presentation of a flag to the King's regiment.

Kadel & Herbert

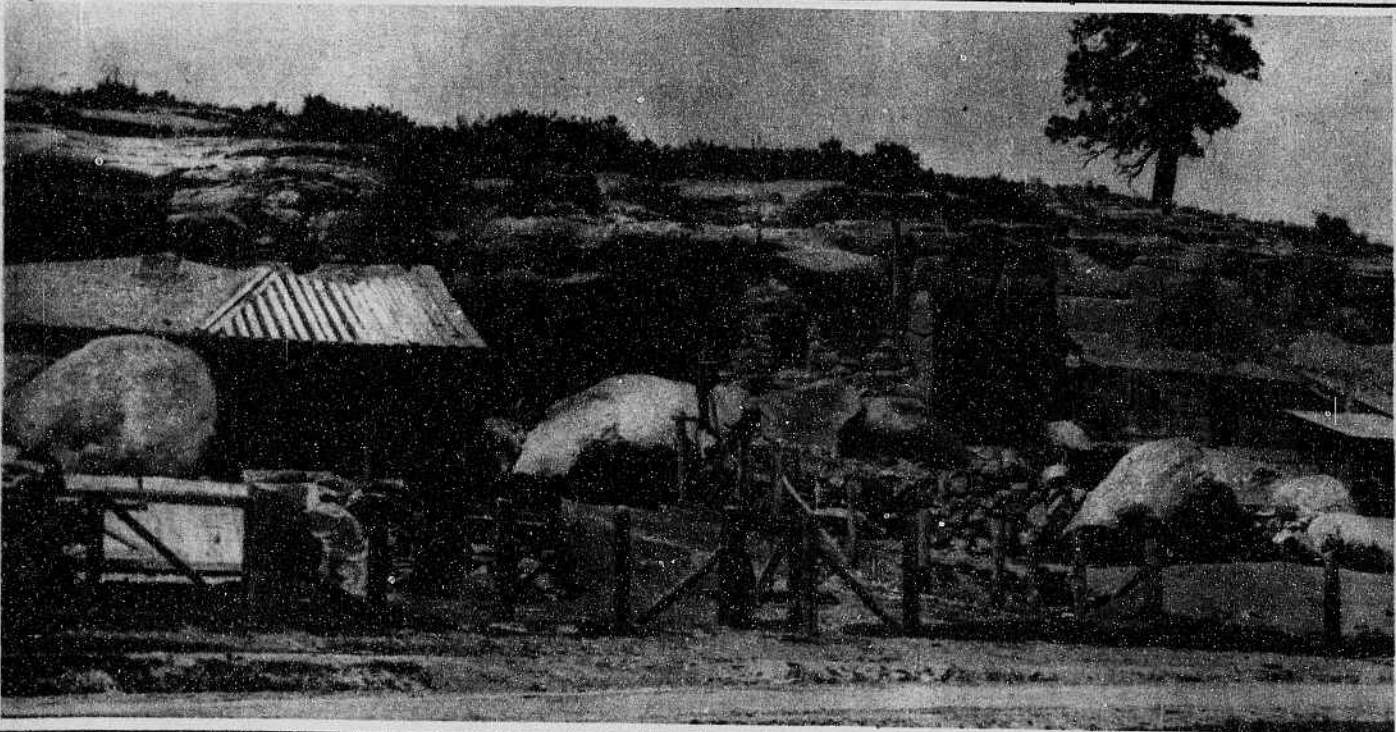

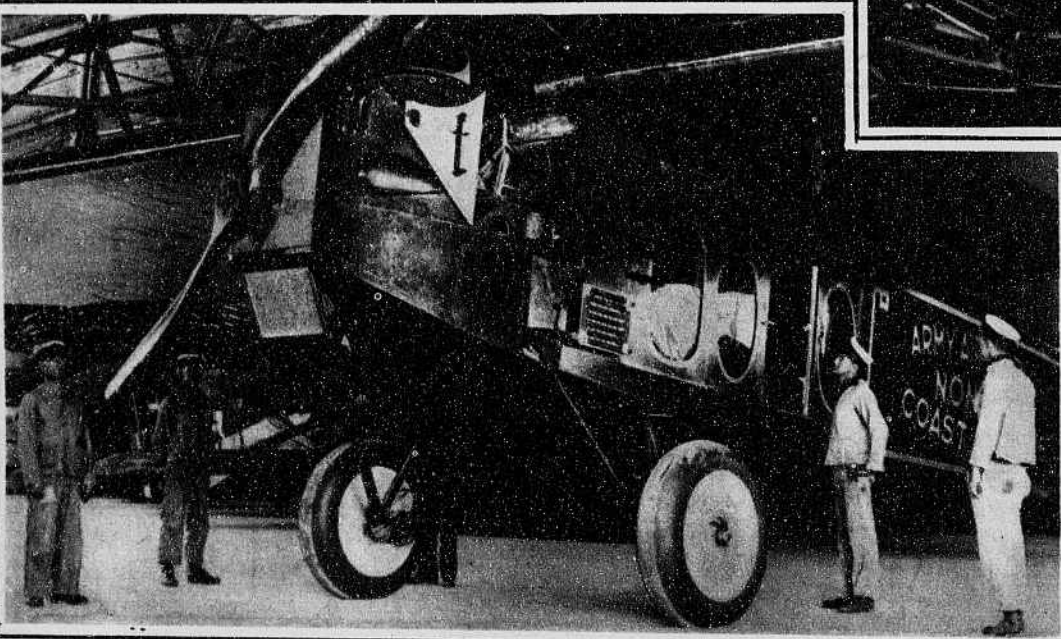

FATHER OF JAPAN'S FUTURE EMPRESS. This shows Prince Kuni, father of the young Princess Nagako. The Princess is betrothed to the Crown Prince of Japan. The picture was made while the Prince was visiting a Tokio art gallery.

Kyotone

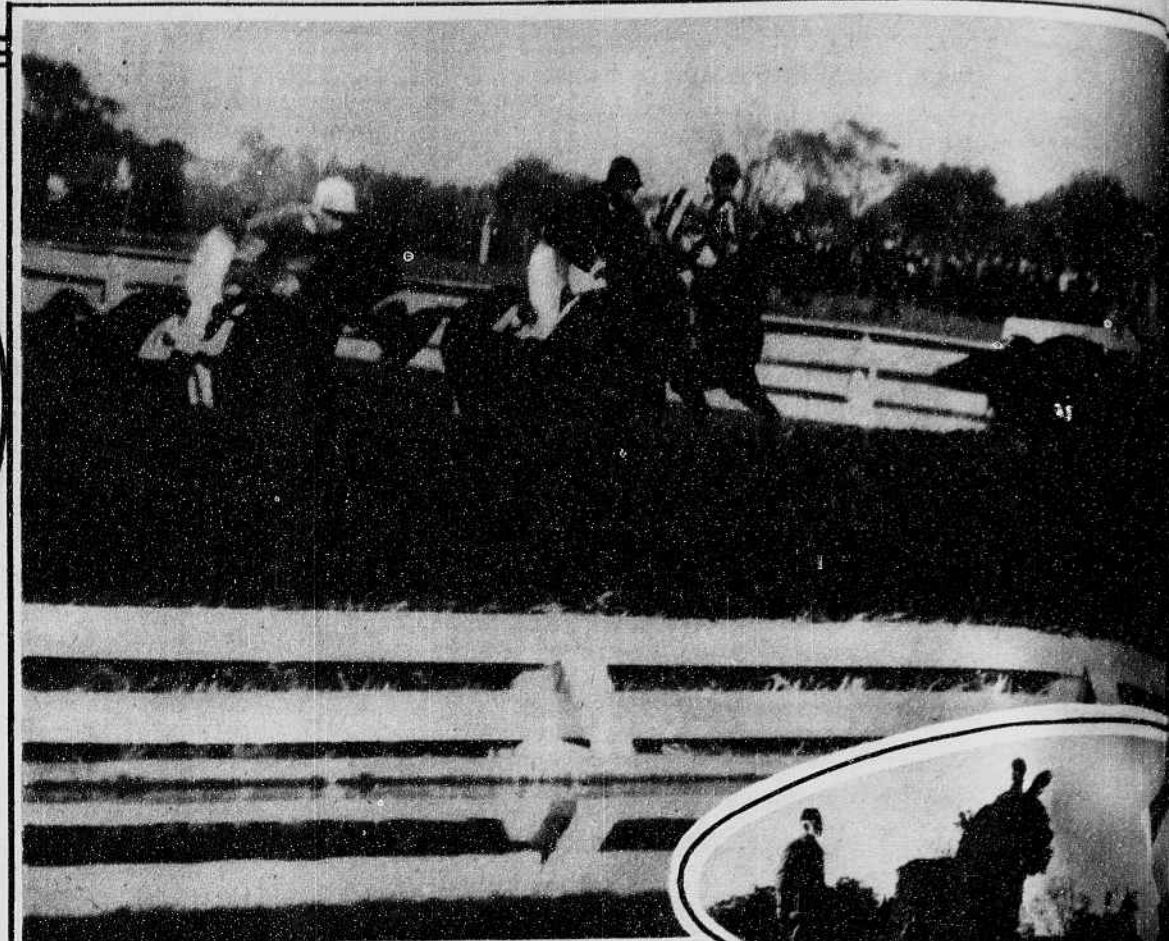

PLANE WHICH BROKE RECORD. This shows the T-2, the giant monoplane in which John A. Macready and Oakley G. Kelley flew from San Diego to Dayton, Ohio, making a non-stop record of 2,060 miles. The officers attempted to fly across the continent, but were compelled to descend on account of an exhausted water supply. Their trip has demonstrated that a coast-to-coast flight is possible.

International

MINERS AS MODERN CLIFF DWELLERS. Natural caves, near Roundup, Mont., used as residences by coal miners. Stone partitions, front walls, and even porches, complete the houses and disconcert the landlord.

E. P. Cole

FINE FORM AT THE WATER JUMP AT PIMLICO. One of the most remarkable race pictures ever taken in this country. It shows the second time over the water jump at Pimlico, Md., one horse being well over and the others taking the barrier or making ready.

Underwood

YALE TAKES BROWN'S MEASURE IN THE BOWL. The annual clash of Brown and Old Eli resulted in a Yale victory, 20 to 0. Neidinger, the Yale quarterback, scored all three of the Blue's touchdowns. Twenty-seven thousand persons saw the contest. The photograph shows the game in progress, Adams, of Brown, kicking to Myers, who was tackled by Lovejoy, of Yale.

Wide World

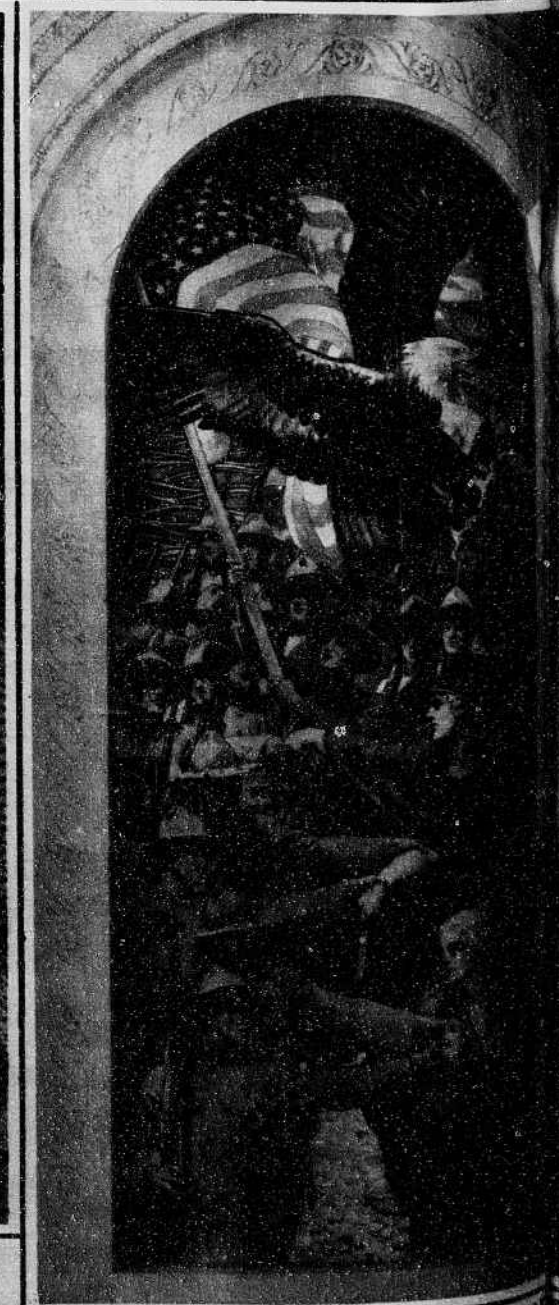

TOOPE OPERA. This is the first time the opera has been given in the city. The performance was a success.

AT THE "MUM" SHOW. One of the first prize chrysanthemums, of extraordinary size, exhibited by F. E. Lewis at the Tarrytown horticultural show. Little Miss Lillian Walker is holding the flower.

Underwood

MURAL PAINTINGS BY SARGENT IMMORTAL. John S. Sargent have been unveiled at the Walden. Lasting memorials to the men of Harvard who fought at the battle of Gettysburg. The other is, "The Conflict Between Death and Victory."